SCHOOL OF INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING AND MANAGEMENT
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, ARCHITECTURE AND TECHNOLOGY
OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

The School of Industrial Engineering and Management at Oklahoma State University seeks talented and motivated candidates for three faculty positions starting in Fall 2019. Rank, tenure, and salary will be determined based on candidate qualifications and accomplishments. The candidates are expected to have completed their PhD or satisfied requirements for a PhD by August 2019. Although candidates with at least one degree in industrial engineering are preferred, those with degrees in a closely related discipline will be considered. Candidates must have a strong methodological background and potential to attract funded research. They must complement and enhance the School's current research and educational thrusts. Performance expectations include leadership and creativity in undergraduate and graduate education, funded research, scholarship, and professional service. The School has an ambitious plan for growth, recognition, and visibility in the industrial engineering and management field.

Candidates with research and curricular interests in one or more areas of industrial engineering and management, including: data analytics; engineering management; ergonomics and human factors; healthcare systems; logistics and transportation; manufacturing; quality, statistics, and reliability; simulation; and supply chain are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should apply online at https://jobs.okstate.edu. Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, teaching and research statements, and a list of three to five references. Any inquiries may be sent to Sunderesh Heragu, Regents Professor and Head, School of Industrial Engineering and Management, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, OK 74078 (sunderesh.heragu@okstate.edu). More information about the School can be found at iem.okstate.edu.

Applications received before October 19th, 2018 will receive full consideration. However, applications will be accepted and considered until the positions are filled.
